

FBMS Bagged Lunch Program – FAQs

Q. Are there any allergy concerns?

A. We do not have any restrictions relating to allergy concerns.

Q. Should all sandwiches be the same type?

A. A variety or all the same are welcome.

Q. What about condiments?

A. Condiments should be provided separately in jars or packets. We also have condiments on hand at the shelters. Tomatoes should also be provided separately.

Q. What about refrigeration?

A. If your sandwich donation requires refrigeration you should plan to refrigerate and, upon delivery, the shelter will refrigerate.

Q. When are the sandwiches distributed?

A. Sandwiches are distributed throughout the day as needed. They are given to guests leaving for the day, when entering late in the day, and to those receiving services by our outreach program.

Q. What about packaging beverages?

A. Please provide beverages separately in bulk, we can distribute as needed. We also have water available at the shelters.

Q. What about packaging of fruit?

A. Fruit can be packaged in the lunches or provided in bulk. Please provide bananas separately in bulk.

Q. What about napkins/utensils?

A. You may provide them in the individual lunch bags or in bulk. We also have a stock of napkins and utensils onsite.
