

Bagged Lunch Program

Help Father Bill's & MainSpring

PREPARE AND DELIVER BAGGED LUNCHES

Groups assemble 50-100 individual bag lunches at their facilities and deliver them to our Quincy or Brockton shelter. A great opportunity for youth groups. Groups are responsible for purchasing all food items. By appointment, a tour of the shelter can be provided at the time of delivery depending on shelter operations. Delivery should be made between 8-11:00 AM or 1-3 p.m. Contact Mary Ann Mendes at mmendes@helpfbms.org or 508-427-6448 X2237 for an available date and time for delivery of your lunches. Lunches are accepted weekdays and weekends at:

Father Bill's Place

MainSpring House
54 N. Main St., Brockton

PACKAGING

Due to storage limitations, lunches should be packed in individual brown bags and delivered in disposable boxes (no plastic bags). Boxes should be no larger than 10" x 18".

*For reporting purposes, we will ask you to fill out an in-kind receipt at the time of your donation. If you are unsure of the value, we suggest an estimate of $5 per lunch.
